HOW FUNDRAISING HELPS YOUR SCHOOL

Bringing your school community together, inspiring students, and making a difference for kids in need

School fundraising is about so much more than raising money – it's an opportunity to unite your whole school community around a common goal. Through fundraising, students learn important life skills such as goal setting, teamwork, and the joy of giving back. It's a chance for teachers, families, and students to connect, celebrate achievements, and build a stronger, more supportive school culture.

Fundraising also boosts school spirit and supports student wellbeing, creating positive experiences that extend beyond the classroom. Every effort, big or small, makes a real difference in the lives of sick children and their families.

We're incredibly grateful to all the students, teachers, and school communities who dedicate their time and energy each year. Hear from some of our school fundraising champions:

Sirius College

"It is very rewarding to know that the small amount of fundraising our students do makes a change to the wider community. It teaches students to have empathy."

Saniye Coskundag, Secondary Girls Coordinator, Sirius College

Wantirna College

"Our community came together to plan and execute a 50km fundraising walk. The sense of achievement for the distance walked and the funds raised made it all worth it!"

Carrie Wallis, Principal, Wantirna Secondary College

Fundraising ideas

There are so many ways schools and child care centres can get involved with the Good Friday Appeal and support patients at The Royal Children's Hospital. Whether it's a big event or a small classroom challenge, every effort helps make a real difference.

Hold a Sport Challenge

School fun runs are one of the most popular ways to fundraise – they're low cost, easy to organise, and don't require selling products. And it doesn't have to be running! Walking, riding, bouncing, skipping – there are lots of ways to get moving while raising funds. For example, Sirius College hosted a colourful and fun "colour run," where students start in white T-shirts and finish covered in vibrant colours.

In 2025, the iCAN Challenge saw 450 students from five schools walk up to 50km from St Kilda to Frankston, raising an incredible $290,587. Students from Elisabeth Murdoch College, Langwarrin Primary, Woodlands Primary, Langwarrin Park Primary, and Pearcedale Primary walked 25–50km with a fundraising goal of $500 each and smashed expectations.

Hop To It with an Easter Event

The Good Friday Appeal is right at the end of Term 1, why not tie it in with an Easter event at your school such as:

- Easter egg hunt
- Easter bonnet parade
- Bunny ear decorating competition
- Easter bunny breakfast
- Egg races
- Egg decorating
- Hot cross bun drive

HOLD A PYJAMA / FANCY DRESS DAY

Another no cost event is to run a dress up day or costume contest. North Fitzroy Primary School ran a 'come to school dressed as what you want to be when you grow up day' - as they believe that all children should be able to look forward to growing up.

HOLD AN EVENT

An event can be a great way to bring your school community together. Simply charge an entry fee as the donation. What about a fete, a trivia night or an art sale or sausage sizzle - the options are endless!

Fundraising promotions

Spread the word, inspire your community, and boost your fundraising impact!

Getting the word out is one of the most important steps to a successful school fundraiser. The more people who know about your fundraiser, the more support you can gather – and the more impact your school can make for the kids at The Royal Children's Hospital!

Here are some simple ways to promote your fundraiser:

- Email families – let parents and carers know how they can get involved or donate.
- School newsletter or website – feature your fundraiser in newsletters, on your school website, or in any regular communication channels.
- Notices home – include a flyer or note so students can share information with their families.
- Posters – put up posters around your school and in local community spaces to spread the word.
- Share your online fundraising page – make sure your community can donate easily by including your Good Friday Appeal online fundraising link in all communications.
- Social media – post about your fundraiser on the school's social channels and encourage students, families, and staff to share it far and wide. Use photos, videos, or stories to make posts more engaging.

Pro tip: Celebrate milestones along the way! Share progress updates, fun photos, or highlight the top fundraising class. This keeps momentum going, encourages participation, and shows the difference your community is making.

By promoting your fundraiser widely, you not only increase donations but also build school spirit, get your community involved, and show students the power of coming together for a good cause.
